Policy Purpose

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000, gives effect to section 32 of the Constitution, which provides that everyone has the right to access information held by the State or any other person (or private body) when that information is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.

The purpose of PAIA is to:

- Foster a culture of transparency and accountability in public and private bodies by giving effect to the right of access to information, and to
- Actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect all of their rights

The organisation recognises everyone's right to access to information and is committed to providing access to the organisation's records where the proper procedural requirements as set out by PAIA and POPI have been met.

The organisation's PAIA manual is compiled in accordance with section 51 of the Act and contains the following provisions:

Annexure A: Contact Details & Business Type	This section provides the organisation's postal and street address, phone, and fax number, and, if available, the e-mail address of the head of the organisation.
Annexure B: Section 10 PAIA Guide	This section provides a description of the guide referred to in Section 10 of PAIA and how you may obtain access to it.
Annexure C: Statutory Records	This section provides a description of the various statutes in terms of which the organisation is required to maintain records.
Annexure D: Availability of Records	This section provides a list of records held by the organisation along with an indication of whether the record is freely available or only accessible by way of a formal request in terms of the provisions of PAIA. The section also provides a description of the category of the data subject(s) to who the respective records relate along with an indication of the purpose for which the record is being kept. Records that are indicated as "Freely Available" can be accessed by contacting the Deputy Information Officer (see Annexure A), without having to follow any formal procedures. Records that are indicated as a "PAIA Request", require the requester to lodge a formal request as provided for in Annexure E.

Annexure E: Request Procedure	This section sets out the procedure required to obtain access to a record indicated as a “PAIA Request” in Annexure D.
Annexure F: Outcome of Request and Fees Payable	This section sets out the outcome of the request and fees that are payable to the organisation prior to processing a request to obtain access to a record held by the organisation.
Annexure G: Processing of Personal Information	This section sets out the applicable aspects for the processing of personal information
Annexure H: Deputy Information Officer Appointment	AThis section provides for the formal appointment of a Deputy Information Officer where so required.

Duties of The Information Officer

The Information Officer and/or the Deputy Information Officer of the organisation are responsible for:

- Publishing and proper communication of the manual i.e., creating policy awareness.
- The facilitation of any request for access.
- Providing adequate notice and feedback to the requester.
- Determining whether to grant a request for access to a complete/full record or only part of a record.
- Ensuring that access to a record, where so granted, is provided timeously and in the correct format.
- Reviewing the policy for accuracy and communicating any amendments.

Right of Access

The Information Officer, Rashay Makan, may only provide access to any record held by the organisation to a requester if:

- The record is required for the exercise or protection of any right, and
- The requester complies with the procedural requirements relating to a request for access to that record, and
- Access to that record is not refused in terms of any of the grounds for refusal listed below.

Grounds For Refusal

---

A | MANDATORY PROTECTION OF PRIVACY OF A THIRD PARTY WHO IS A NATURAL PERSON

Grounds For Refusal

- The disclosure would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about a third party that is a natural person (including a deceased individual).

No Grounds for Refusal

- The record consists of information that concerns an individual who has already consented in writing to its disclosure to the requester concerned.
- The record consists of information that is already publicly available.
- The record consists of information that was given to the organisation by the individual to whom it relates, and the individual was informed by or on behalf of the organisation, before it is given, that the information belongs to a class of information that would or might be made available to the public.
- The record consists of information about an individual's physical or mental health, or well-being, who is under the care of the requester and who is under the age of 18; or incapable of understanding the nature of the request, and if giving access would be in the individual's best interest.
- The record consists of information about an individual who is deceased, and the requester is the individual's next of kin or making the request with the written consent of the individual's next of kin.
- The record consists of information about an individual who is or was an official of the organisation and which relates to the position or functions of the individual, including, but not limited to the title, work address, work phone number, classification, salary scale or remuneration and responsibilities of the position held, or services performed by the individual, and the name of the individual on a record prepared by the individual in the course of employment.

B | MANDATORY PROTECTION OF COMMERCIAL INFORMATION OF A THIRD PARTY

Grounds For Refusal

- The record consists of information that contains trade secrets of a third party
- The record consists of information that contains financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, other than trade secrets, of a third party, the disclosure of which would be likely to cause harm to the commercial or financial interests of that third party
- The record consists of information supplied in confidence by a third party, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to put that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or to prejudice that third party in commercial competition

No Grounds for Refusal

The Information Officer, Rashay Makan, must assess whether there are any grounds for refusing a request for access.

Where any grounds for refusal are found, a request for access will not be granted.

However, despite finding any grounds for refusal, access to the record(s) will be provided where:

- the disclosure of the record would reveal evidence of a substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with, the law or imminent and serious public or environmental risk, and
- the public interest in disclosing records, will clearly outweigh the harm contemplated in the provision in question.

Where there are no grounds for refusal, a request for access will be granted.

If a request for access is made with regards to a record containing information that would justify a ground for refusal, every part of the record which:

- does not contain, and
- can reasonably be severed from any part that contains any such information must, despite any other provision of PAIA, also be disclosed.

The grounds for refusal, or absence thereof, are set out below:

- The record consists of information about a third party who has consented and who has already consented in writing to its disclosure to the requester concerned.
- The record consists of information about the results of any product or environmental testing or other investigation supplied by a third party or the results of any such testing or investigation carried out by or on behalf of a third party and its disclosure would reveal a serious public safety or environmental risk (the results of any product or environmental testing or other investigation do not include the results of preliminary testing or other investigation conducted for the purpose of developing methods of testing or other investigation).

C | MANDATORY PROTECTION OF CERTAIN CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION OF A THIRD PARTY

Grounds For Refusal

- The record consists of information the disclosure of which would constitute an action for breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement.

D | MANDATORY PROTECTION OF SAFETY OF INDIVIDUALS AND PROTECTION OF PROPERTY

Grounds For Refusal

- The record consists of information that if disclosed could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual.
- The record consists of information that if disclosed would likely prejudice or impair the security of a building, a structure or system, a computer or communication system, a means of transport, or any other property.

- The record consists of information that if disclosed would likely prejudice or impair the security of methods, systems, plans, or procedures for the protection of an individual in accordance with a witness protection scheme, the safety of the public, or any part of the public, or the security of property.

E | MANDATORY PROTECTION OF RECORDS PRIVILEGED FROM PRODUCTION IN LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Grounds For Refusal

- The record consists of information privileged from production in legal proceedings unless the person entitled to the privilege has waived the privilege.

F | COMMERCIAL INFORMATION OF THE ORGANISATION

Grounds For Refusal

- The record consists of information that contains trade secrets of the organisation.
- The record consists of information that contains financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, other than trade secrets, of the organisation, the disclosure of which would likely cause harm to the commercial or financial interests of the organisation.
- The record consists of information, the disclosure of which, could reasonably be expected to put the organisation at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice the organisation in commercial competition.
- The record is a computer program as defined in section 1(1) of the Copyright Act (Act 98 of 1978), owned by the organisation, except insofar as it is required to give access to a record to which access is granted in terms of PAIA.

No Grounds for Refusal

- The record consists of information about the results of any product or environmental testing or other investigation supplied by the organisation or the results of any such testing or investigation carried out by or on behalf of the organisation and its disclosure would reveal a serious public safety or environmental risk (the results of any product or environmental testing or other investigation do not include the results of preliminary testing or other investigation conducted for the purpose of developing methods of testing or other investigation).

G | MANDATORY PROTECTION OF RESEARCH INFORMATION OF A THIRD PARTY AND THE ORGANISATION

Grounds For Refusal

- The record consists of information that contains information about research being or to be carried out by or on behalf of a third party, the disclosure of which would be likely to expose the third party, a person that is or will be carrying out the research on behalf of the third party, or the subject matter of the research to serious disadvantage.
- The record consists of information that contains information about research being or to be carried out by or on behalf of the organisation, the disclosure of which would be likely to expose the organisation, a person that is or will be carrying out the research on behalf of the organisation, or the subject matter of the research to serious disadvantage.

NOTICE

Where a request for access has been received the Information Officer, Rashay Makan, will notify the requester of receipt and the prescribed fee (if any) that is payable prior to processing the request. Please refer to Annexure F for a full breakdown of fees payable. Personal requesters will not be charged a request fee.

The notice must state:

- The amount of the deposit payable (if any).

- That the requester may lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the tender or payment of the request fee, or the tender or payment of a deposit, as the case may be.
- The procedure (including the period) for lodging the complaint with the Information Regulator or the application.

Except to the extent that the provisions regarding third-party notification may apply, the Information Officer and/or Deputy Information Officer to whom the request is made, must as soon as reasonably possible, but in any event within 30 days, after the request has been received in the prescribed format:

- Decide in accordance with PAIA whether to grant the request, and
- Notify the requester of the decision and, if the requester stated that he or she wishes to be informed of the decision in any other manner, inform him or her in that manner, if it is reasonably possible.

If the request for access is granted, the notice must state:

- The access fee (if any) to be paid upon access.
- The form in which access will be given, and
- That the requester may lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the access fee to be paid or the form of access granted, and the procedure, including the period allowed, for lodging a complaint with the Information Regulator or the application.

If the request for access is refused, the notice must:

- State adequate reasons for the refusal, including the relevant provision of PAIA that was relied on.
- Exclude, from any such reasons, any reference to the content of the records' and
- State that the requester may lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the refusal of the request, and the procedure (including the period) for lodging a complaint with the Information Regulator or the application.
- Should all reasonable steps have been taken to find a record requested, and there are reasonable grounds for believing that the record:
- Is in the organisation's possession, but cannot be found, or
- Simply does not exist, the head of the organisation must, by way of affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to provide access to that record. The affidavit or affirmation must provide full account of all steps taken to find the record in question or to determine whether the record exists, as the case may be, including all communication with every person who conducted the search on behalf of the head.

AVAILABILITY OF THE MANUAL

A copy of the Manual is available:

- On request copy will be sent via email, and a hardcopy will be kept at the office for public inspection
- To any person upon request and upon the payment of a reasonable prescribed fee
- To the Information Regulator upon request.
- A fee for a copy of the Manual, as contemplated in annexure B of the Regulations, shall be paid per each A4-size photocopy made.

The Regulator has, in terms of section 10(1) of PAIA, as amended, updated and made available the revised Guide on how to use PAIA ("Guide"), in an easily comprehensible form and manner, as may reasonably be required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in PAIA and POPIA.

The Guide is available in each of the official languages and in braille.

The aforesaid Guide contains the description of:

- the objects of PAIA and POPIA;
- the postal and street address, phone and fax number and, if available, electronic mail address of the Information Officer of every public body, and designated in terms of section 17(1) of PAIA and section 56 of POPIA;
- the manner and form of a request for:
  - access to a record of a public body contemplated in section 11;
  - and access to a record of a private body contemplated in section 50;
- the assistance available from the IO of a public body in terms of PAIA and POPIA;
- the assistance available from the Regulator in terms of PAIA and POPIA;
- all remedies in law available regarding an act or failure to act in respect of a right or duty conferred or imposed by PAIA and POPIA, including the manner of lodging:
  - an internal appeal
  - complaint to the Regulator; and an application with a court against a decision by the information officer of a public body, a decision on internal appeal or a decision by the Regulator or a decision of the head of a private body
  - the provisions of sections 14 and 51 requiring a public body and private body, respectively, to compile a manual, and how to obtain access to a manual
  - the provisions of sections 15 and 52 providing for the voluntary disclosure of categories of records by a public body and private body, respectively
  - the notices issued in terms of sections 22 and 54 regarding fees to be paid in relation to requests for access; and - the regulations made in terms of section 92

Members of the public can inspect or make copies of the Guide from the offices of the public and private bodies, including the office of the Regulator, during normal working hours.

The Guide can also be obtained:

- upon request to the Information Officer.
- from the website of the Regulator ([info regulator.org.za](http://info regulator.org.za)).

PAIA grants a requester access to records of a private body, if the record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.

Where a public body lodges a request, the public body must be acting in the public interest.

Requests in terms of PAIA shall be made in accordance with the prescribed procedures at the rates provided.

Annexure H | Deputy Information Office Appointment

In terms of the Protection of Personal Information Act, the head of a private body is the designated Information Officer for that private body. The Information Officer may delegate any power or duty conferred or imposed in terms of POPI to the Deputy Information Officer.

The organisation has appointed a Deputy Information Officer to facilitate any requests to access records held by the organisation. This delegation does not prohibit the person who made the delegation from exercising power concerned or performing the duty concerned with himself or herself. The delegation may at any time be withdrawn or amended in writing by the person who made the delegation.

The Deputy Information Officer need not have any specific qualifications but must have a thorough knowledge of the organisation's functional departments and business processes.

The Deputy Information Officer has the authority to approach all staff members of the organisation and to request all records held by the organisation. Where a manager is of the opinion that access to a record should not be granted to the Deputy Information Officer, reasons for this decision shall be given to the Information Officer who will make a final decision on the matter.

Together with the Information Officer, the Deputy Information Officer is responsible for:

- Publishing and proper communication of the manual i.e., creating policy awareness
- The facilitation of any request for access
- Providing adequate notice and feedback to the requester
- Determining whether to grant a request for access to a complete/full record or only part of a record
- Ensuring that access to a record, where so granted, is provided timeously and in the correct format
- Reviewing the policy for accuracy and communicating any amendments

As the Head of the Organisation, I hereby appoint Bryan Austen as the Organisation's Deputy Information Officer.
